Baldy Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARVEY, HUGHES & CO.

Office—East side Third Street, between Market and Jefferson.

LOUISVILLE, KY.:
THURSDAY MORNING—JAN. 24, 1861.

To Our Patrons in Jeffersonville.

In order to do ourselves and our patrons in Jeffersonville justice, and to secure the prompt and early delivery of the Democrat, we have changed carriers, and Mr. C. D. Baily will deliver our paper, henceforward, at the rate of 12 cents per week, our regular rate in Louisville. Our circulation has lately increased fully fifty per cent., but we trust that its present numbers will be doubled within a few days. Those who do not receive their papers at once, will oblige us by reporting the fact to Mr. Baily, at BARNETT's coal office, on Pearl street.

The unusual pressure upon the advertising columns of the Democrat on Wednesday morning—occupying some five columns of extra space—prevented us from giving the general variety and usual summary of news. Such demands are not frequent, and we beg leave to remind our readers that the Democrat is now seldom lacking in any of its departments, and will at all times endeavor to be the first in furnishing important and reliable information, whether of local or general interest.

TREMENDOUS CONFLAGRATION!—Loss, Forty Thousand Dollars.—About half-past four o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in the planing mill of Mr. H. G. Van Seggern, at the corner of Shelby and Main streets, which before the destructive element was subdued, devoured nearly one-half of the square, and destroyed property to the amount of $40,000. The fire might have been quenched, perhaps, with less destruction, but the water had not been let into the conductors, in that section of the city, owing to the fact that there are no consumers, and that the street mains leaked.

Military.—A meeting is called for at the armory of the Jackson Guards, this evening, to form a Light Artillery company. All those who feel an interest in the matter are requested to attend.

Apointments.—The Governor has appointed Col. James Harding Quartermaster General of the State. Lieutenant Warwick Hough has been appointed Adjutant General.

The total loss of Mr. Van Seggern reaches $28,000—including planing mill, buildings, finished stock, lumber, and his frame residence adjoining. His insurance was only $5,000 upon the machinery of his mill, and $1,500 upon his private residence and furniture, leaving a net loss of $21,500 uninsured. His loss would have been far greater, but a larger portion of his furniture and household effects were saved. I. N. Breedon lost several thousand dollars worth of lumber stored in the yard.

The fire communicated to two brick two-story buildings adjoining the St. Patrick's Church, which is situated at the corner of Walnut and Clay streets. One house was occupied by Father Bach, of St. Patrick's Church, and the other by John Finneman, a shoemaker, and one or two other families. The furniture in those buildings was saved, but the buildings are a total loss, and are valued at $2,500.

The buildings destroyed on Madison street, adjoining the mill, were a one-story brick cottage, occupied and owned by John A. Bright, carpenter, and two other residences, owned by Mr. Deitz. Mr. Bright's loss is about $2,000, upon which there was no insurance, while Mr. Deitz is damaged to the extent of about $2,500, upon which there was a partial insurance.

The residence of Mrs. McAtee.

Election of Majors.—An election will take place in Scott county on Saturday, the 26th inst., for Majors of the enrolled militia.

Covington Grays.—The Kentucky Grays, of Covington, have got a new commander, in the person of Lieut. Alfred Martin, who succeeds S. K. Hays, who is promoted to the command of the Licking Battalion.

Rough and Ready Guards.—There will be an adjourned meeting of the Rough and Ready Guards at Apollo Hall, corner of First and Jefferson streets, this evening at seven o'clock. This promises to be one of the finest companies in the city.

Jeffersonville Items.

There is some excitement among the citizens of Jeffersonville on account of the rumor that one or two of their number who are engaged in business in this city, had been notified to leave. So far as we are able to learn, the report is untrue. They also say that citizens of Jeffersonville who voted for Lincoln have been made to adjust the distracting difficulties that now convulse our country.

That the Legislature has no constitutional right to call a convention of the people to decide the right or the necessity of secession, believing "no real necessity exists for such action at the present time."

That Mr. Joseph Croxton, our Representative in the Legislature, is hereby instructed to hereafter vote for those measures which shall best represent the Union and best preserve the Union.

THOMAS RYAN,
John A. CUMINS.

Mr. W. G. Reaser offered a series of resolutions, presented at the suggestion of Mr. Croxton, as a substitute for the report of the committee, and urged their adoption in an eloquent manner. The resolutions were substantially in sentiment the same as those reported by the committee, with the exception of omitting any censure upon Mr. Croxton, and closing with the following:

Resolved, That, believing the foregoing resolutions embody the sentiments of Joseph Croxton, our Representative in the Legislature, we do not believe that he intended to disregard your political opinions, or give way to any sentimental dilation, or to the Union, or disrespectful to our national flag, when he gave the vote under consideration of night.

Mr. Croxton spoke at some length expository of his vote. He thought that he was reflecting the sentiments of his constituents, and had the best interests of Louisville at heart. He thought that Louisville should remain neutral and not follow the Abolitionist example of St. Louis and Cincinnati. It was loyal to the Union, and would exhaust every means of preserving it before giving it up. He alluded to the fact that the flag had never been raised over the capitol, and said that at the last session of the Legislature the entire Louisville delegation had voted against a similar resolution. He thought that Louisville ought to protect herself, and he had introduced a measure into the Legislature to protect Louisville mechanically by shutting the competing manufactures of Cincinnati penitentiaries. He urged the adoption of the substitute offered by Mr. Reaser, as embodying his views and sentiments.

Mr. Robert A. Hamilton eloquently urged the rejection of the substitute and the adoption of the report of the committee. He had no personal animus, but the meeting deemed it necessary to condemn his act notwithstanding his apologies. He denounced the meeting as being packed against him, and the resolutions as cut and dried, and agreed on prior to the meeting, a statement we know to be a mistake altogether. We heard it hinted that some evening this week his friends would hold a meeting to endorse him, the necessity of which is quite apparent, when it is remembered that the resolutions adopted last night were not objectionable, and the censure Mr. Croxton confessed himself amenable to, through a misapprehension of the wishes of his constituency.

BREVITIES.—There is an article going the rounds of the papers, entitled "A French View of Mr. Seward's Speech." The news arises as to whether it is not a "paroxysm."

—Timothy Titcomb, i.e., Dr. Holland, the author of "Gold Fire," "Letters to the Young," "Bitter Sweet"—a charming book, and "Miss Gilber's Corner," a dull novel, lectured at Cincinnati last night.

The Georgetown Journal says that Monday last was the dullest County Court ever known in Scott. There was no stock in market.

The people of Hickman county, Ky., met at Clinton on Monday, the 7th inst., and passed resolutions favoring secession.

A daily mail has been established between Hickman, Ky., and Cairo, Illinois, via Railrod. A good movement.

We are indebted to Wm. H. Meglemey for some choice copies of his superior Southdown mutton. It cannot be surpassed.

Mr. Meglemey occupies a stall in the upper middle market, about one fourth way down from the entrance on Third street.

The report of the Directory of the Louisville and Frankfort Railway is published. We shall advert to it at length hereafter.

DISPATCHES.—In Congress Mr. Armstrong, a Republican, made a speech in favor of the Crittenden amendments.... The Georgia Convention assumes her postal responsibilities. Six members of her Convention entered their protest against secession, but will stand the hazard of the die in the event of coercion..... It is probable that the Democrats, combined with twenty-four Republican members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, will repeal the personal liberty bill of that state.... North Carolina may, or may not, call a Convention. The old North State is conservative, but, like Kentucky, not submissive.

PICKPOCKETS IN COURT.—The crowd in the Circuit Court—yesterday morning was very large, the expected trial of the Walker attracting a great deal of attention.

The dense crowd was closely wedged, and a steamboat clerk found, when he had left the room, that some adroit chap had cut out his pantaloons pocket and taken his pocket-book. Fortunately it contained only a few dollars.

—Mr. Overmyer, messenger of the Adams Express Company, has again placed us under obligations for St. Louis papers in the morning of the mail.

The foreign news by telegraph is interesting. European funds are shaken by the American convulsion.

Amusements.

THEATRE.—The beautiful drama of the Dead Heart was again performed, but not to a large house as might have been expected, from the great merit of the piece and the extraordinary excellence of Mr. Eddy as Robert Landry. This was due to the dismal rainy weather, which kept the theater-goers within doors. The piece is to be repeated to-night, and if the rain will permit we expect to see a crowded house. Nothing in the shape of a sensational drama has been presented this season can be at all compared to the Dead Heart for real intrinsic excellence.

MUSICAL FUND CONCERT.—To night the Musical Fund Society will give a concert at the Masonic Temple. That it will be a recherche affair, everybody familiar with the previous concerns of this admirable and worthy association of musical talent, well knows. Certainly none of the itinerant musical people afford such delightful entertainments, whatever their pretensions may be, and we hope and trust that there will be an audience worthy of the Society and its merits.

MILITARY.

The Military of the State—The report of the Adjutant-General to the Legislature represents the sum total of arms belonging to the State to consist of 65 pieces of ordnance, 11,283 muskets, 3,159 rifles, and 2,873 cavalry arms. The Inspector-General recommends, "to give rapid and efficient assistance to the active force in times of emergency," the organization by the Governor of a system of "Active Reserves," their term of service to be one year—said Reserve to be called to the assistance of the active militia when necessary, and "that whenever war is to be in readiness, they be subject to the same government and regulations as the active force, and be under the command of the Inspector-General; but that they be not required to uniform themselves, and will not be armed except when expected to take the field; but that, under such regulations as may be established, they be drilled in connection with the active force in their vicinity, and may be permitted to use the arms of such force, when under the command of an officer of the Active Militia."

Meeting.—A meeting is called for at the armory of the Jackson Guards, this evening, to form a Light Artillery company. All those who feel an interest in the matter are requested to attend.

APOINTMENTS.—The Governor has appointed Col. James Harding Quartermaster General of the State. Lieutenant Warwick Hough has been appointed Adjutant General.

Van Seggern, at the corner of Shelby and Main streets, which before the destructive element was subdued, devoured nearly one-half of the square, and destroyed property to the amount of $40,000. The fire might have been quenched, perhaps, with less destruction, but the water had not been let into the conductors, in that section of the city, owing to the fact that there are no consumers, and that the street mains leaked.

Daily Democrat

BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

The Daily Democrat to the Country. Now that Congress is in session and every one within the facilities of a daily mail should take a daily paper, we beg leave to remind our readers and the public generally that the Daily Democrat, for the country, is supplied at five dollars per year or fifty cents per month, payable always in advance.

Let those who would keep themselves posted on the current events of the times send forward their subscriptions at once.

New Goods.—Guthrie & Bros. are receiving their second importation of dry goods, bought since the decline, which enables them to sell at prices much below usual rates. Rept velours, in all colors; French and Irish poplins, all grades; new prints, merinoes, black poplins and mourning goods, evening silks, hoseery, etc. This is a rare chance for choice goods, at very low prices.

UNION! UNION!—The Hon. J. F. Bell expressed himself so strongly in favor of the perpetuity of our glorious Union, that he believed there was no earthly contingency within the reach of human calculation "which could justify a disruption of this glorious government." Language equally as strong might be used in favor of the great clothing establishment of J. M. Armstrong, on Main street, opposite the National Hotel. To sustain these two institutions—the Union of the States and Armstrong's Clothing House—are the greatest questions now before the American people. "They must and shall be sustained!"

HOMESTEAD. INDEPENDENCE, Ky., Aug. 20, '60.

Dear Sir: For the past several months I have been laboring under great weakness and general debility, much of the time confined to my bed, and from which I received no benefit from my physician. After using some of your blood pills and blood purifier, purchased of your agent, Mr. Wm. H. Plummer, I feel as a new person, almost entirely free from disease, and would recommend your medicines to all who are in need of so invaluable remedies.

Yours truly, MARY V. HOWMAN.

One of the proofs that Dr. Shallenberger's invaluable remedy for fever and ague is a discovery in medicine based upon a new and correct principle, may be found in the fact that cases of long standing, worn out with quinine, or all other remedies—cases which fail to be impressed in the usual manner, are (if not complicated with other serious maladies) as speedily and effectually treated as those which have never received any kind of treatment. For further proof get a pamphlet of "The Elixir of Life," and see it.

The old Latin poet said that "who man was the sweet assignment" for the cares of man; but in our day we have an all-powerful talisman for the assignment of care, broken spirits, prostrated energies, and debilitating influences of both sexes. This article is Wright's R^ejuvenating Elixir. Marvel not when I tell you that it is no vain word we utter; this Elixir will revitalize the disorganized, functions and prostrated energies of the human body; it will drive despair and despondency to the winds, it will soothe the irritable disposition; it will effectually remove dyspepsia, gloominess, and mental & hallucination; is simple but effective in its operation—has brought sleep and rest to many a weary soul. Sold by all respectable druggists throughout the United States and Canada. J. WRIGHT & CO., sole proprietors, New Orleans, La. See advertisement.

McLean's STRENGTHENING CORDIAL.—This invaluable compound, we are glad to know, has become the most popular remedy in the United States. Nearly every family keeps it on hand. They find it saves physicians bills. A small quantity given in season will ward off fevers, or any prevalent disease. See the advertisement in another column.

It is a time when there is great fear that the stock of dry lumber, sash, doors, blinds, &c., will fall short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville, it will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Ellis & Co., have enlarged their factory and have now on hand several million of dry lumber. Call at their office on Main street, nearly opposite the Gulf Hotel, or at their factory on Fulton, above Preston street.

JOINT PRINTING OFFICE FOR SALE.—A large and well-appointed Job Printing Office, with its presses and fixtures, is offered for sale. The proprietors, wishing to quit the business, will dispose of it on the most reasonable terms. For particulars, inquire at the Democrat office. dif

FINE FURNITURE.—Wharton & Bennett keep constantly on hand a large stock of desirable parlor, office and chamber furniture, of all kinds and patterns which they sell at their warehouse at the lowest prices. Their store is No. 502 and 504 Market street, between Second and Third.

ENGINE AND BOILER FOR SALE.—We have for sale a good, serviceable engine and boiler, which can be bought low for cash. It can be seen at the Democrat office. dif

J. N. Collins sells the best of coal at his office, Third street, between Market and Jefferson. Give him your orders. dif

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.—This subscriber hereby gives notice that he will sell his entire stock of PROPS, TOYS, GROCERIES, &c., and all personal effects.

It is attached to my residence, one quarter of a mile distant from Elizabethtown, Ky., and on the turnpike leading to Frankfort, and is situated in a well-peopled land, having theron a west of the present market. It is a large house, containing a large neighborhood of people, who are all engaged in agriculture, and are in a position to buy and sell. Persons who can hire it to good advantage will be given a full account of its value.
